resolutions offered by—
that the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to report: 1. The names of all persons nominated by the collector of the port of New York for appointment in the New York custom-house between January 1, 1880, and December 1, 1880, with the positions for which they were respectively nominated and the salaries attached to such positions, and the date of such nominations respectively. 2. The names of all persons appointed to positions under the collector of the port in the New York custom-house between January 1, 1880, and December 1, 1880, the positions to which they were respectively appointed and the salaries attached thereto. 3. Whether any persons have, between January 1, 1880, and December 1, 1880, been nominated by the collector of the port of New York for appointment in the New York custom-house who had not previous to such nomination been certified as having been recommended for appointment after examination by the board of examiners appointed in pursuance of the provisions of the so-called civil-service rules, together with the names of such persons, the dates of their nomination respectively, and the positions for which they were nominated and the salaries of such positions, and whether any of such persons and which, were appointed and when. 4. Whether any such person referred to in the preceding paragraph has been so nominated or appointed more than once and whether to the same or a different position, with the name of every such person so nominated or appointed more than once and the date of each such nomination and appointment and the position for which each such nomination or appointment was made and the salary thereof. 5. Whether any such person or persons as are referred to in the last two preceding paragraphs so nominated or appointed had prior to such nomination or appointment appeared before the said board of examiners and had failed to secure a sufficient number of marks to qualify him or them under the civil-service rules for an appointment at the time he was so nominated or appointed, and whether at the time of each such nomination and appointment there were any persons not then appointed who on an examination by said examiners had received a higher number of marks than such persons so nominated or appointed, and how many such persons there were who at such time or times had received such higher number of marks and had not been appointed. 6. Whether any person was during said period nominated or appointed under the collector of said port to any position for which he had not been examined by said board of examiners, and, if so, who such persons were and the dates of their nomination or appointment, or both, and the positions to which they were nominated or appointed, or both, and the salaries attached to such positions. 7. Whether any nominations or appointments have, during said period, been made to positions under said collector of persons to hold "temporary appointments," so called, and the names of all such persons so nominated or appointed, and the dates of their nomination and appointment and the salaries paid to them, and whether any persons received a "temporary appointment" more than once, and, if so, who and when and to what position or positions, and what compensation was paid to each such person. 8. Whether any person who had received a "temporary appointment," or had been appointed when not eligible for appointment according to the civil-service rules, under the said collector, has been permitted to take part in any competition or examination of persons seeking to be promoted from one position to another, and, if so, who and when. 9. Whether during said period any person was nominated or appointed to a position under the said collector who had previously thereto been removed or dismissed from the service of the Government, or had resigned under charges, and, if so, who. 10. Whether the storekeepers or any other class of persons in said custom-house have been excepted from such rules, and whether any storekeeper has been promoted or transferred to another position without an examination in pursuance of such rules, and who and when. resolutions offered by—whereas the Constitution of the United States, in clause 3 of section 2 of article 1, provides that "Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States * * * according to their respective numbers," and that "the actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct;" and whereas under the authority of law an enumeration of inhabitants was made during the current year which must be the basis of representation for the decennial period beginning March 4, 1883; and whereas it is important that the several States should be enabled by their Legislatures (many of which are now in session or will soon convene) to make proper provision at an early period with regard to the election of Representatives to the Forty-eighth and subsequent Congresses: therefore, that the Secretary of the Interior be, and is hereby, directed to communicate to the Senate, at the earliest practicable period, the returns of the population of the respective States of the Union as ascertained by the tenth census. Considered by unanimous consent and agreed to 34 that the Committee on Finance be requested to inquire whether the interests of the public service would not be promoted by such a change or modification of the organization of the Treasury Department as would secure a division of duties and responsibilities whereby the collection, receipt, and safe keeping of all Government revenues and the accounts therefor should be in entirely different hands from the disbursements of the Government and the accounts therefor.
that said committee be further requested to consider the expediency and propriety of transferring from the Treasury Department to the War or Navy Department the Steamboat Inspection Service, the Life-Saving Service, the Light-House Board, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and the Marine-Hospital Service; and also the expediency and propriety of putting under the charge of the Department of State matters connected with the foreign and domestic commerce of the United States. that said committee have leave to report by bill or otherwise. Ordered to lie on the table and be printed 546 considered, modified, and agreed to..... 1489 concurrent resolutions submitted by—

that the two Houses of Congress shall assemble in the Hall of the House of Representatives on Wednesday, the 9th of February, 1881, at twelve o'clock m., and the President of the Senate shall be the presiding officer; that one person be appointed a teller on the part of the Senate and two on the part of the House of Representatives to make a list of the votes as they shall be declared; that the result shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, who shall announce the state of the vote and the persons elected to the two Houses assembled as aforesaid, which shall be deemed a declaration of the persons elected President and Vice-President of the United States; and, together with a list of votes, be entered on the Journal of the two Houses.
that if it shall appear that any votes of electors for President or Vice-President of the United States have been given on a day other than that fixed for casting such votes by act of Congress, in pursuance of the Constitution of the United States; if the counting or omitting to count such votes shall not essentially change the result of the election, they shall be reported by the President of the Senate in the following manner: Were the votes of the electors cast on the —— day of ——, 1880, to be counted, the result would be for A B for President of the United States —— votes and for C D for President of the United States —— votes; if not counted, the result would be for A B for President of the United States —— votes and for C D for President of the United States —— votes; but in either event —— is elected President of the United States. And in the same manner for Vice-President.

that the Sergeant-at-Arms take into custody and bring to the bar of the House such of its members as are now absent without the leave of the House. Adopted ... 2058 whereas the House of Representatives has heard with feelings of unaffected grief the announcement of the death of Hon. Fernando Wood, a Representative in Congress from the ninth district of the State of New York:
that in the loss of our late associate in legislative life we deplore one of the ablest counselors of our nation, whose long public service, beginning forty years ago, in municipal as well as in Federal life, were given with energy, intelligence, sagacity, and courage to what seemed to him the best interests of his great city, the Empire State, and the entire country; and for his supreme and undaunted devotion to duty, even to the end of his illustrious career, and his unswerving loyalty to his convictions and to the Constitution of our land, we desire to testify our unaffected condolence with his family, his constituents, his city, and his State.
that the Clerk of this House be directed to present this public expression of the sorrow felt by this House in its loss to the family of the deceased.
that as a further mark of respect for the memory of the deceased, this House do now adjourn 2241
adopted 2247
